RATES AND CHARGES

PREPARATION TIME

Unless the position papers of the parties are unusually complex or long, there is a flat rate of $200 for prep time. This flat rate also includes initial scheduling and becomes due on engagement. This flat rate does not include pre- or post-discussions with counsel regarding the case issues and may be increased if scheduling becomes problematic the papers are extensive.

MEDIATION SERVICES

Mediation fees are $500 per hour with a minimum of three hours. This rate applies to mediation time as well as pre- and post-discussions with counsel on case issues.

ARBITRATION, MASTER, OR OTHER SERVICES

Arbitration fees are $400 per hour and include any preparation time, in excess of one hour. There is a minimum of four hours for arbitration. Pre- and post-hearing motions, review and decision drafting are at this rate.

TRAVEL AND LOCATION

No charge for travel in Tucson, otherwise the rate is $200 per hour. Usually, mediations or hearings will be conducted in the offices of counsel. A "neutral" site may available if necessary and must be at scheduled in advance either and will likely have additional charges.

PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION FEE

Counsel will be the responsible parties for payment. Fees will usually be invoiced after completion (unless proceedings have commenced and are continued) and are due on receipt. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, fees will be spilt pro rata by the number of parties. When a matter is scheduled, the prep time fee and half the minimum are due if the matter is cancelled.
